

Evanston, IL - June 7, 2007 -- Vogue Fabrics has been named to host the upcoming Sulky "Sew Exciting" Seminar. This unique event has been held around the country, and has proven to be quite popular with sewing enthusiasts of all skill levels and varied interests. Sulky is one of the nations leaders in providing highly specialized interfacings and decorative threads for expert techniques with little added effort. This program is designed to show consumers how easy it is to use the Sulky products in acheiving a new level of sewing creativity.

"Fuling some of the nation's resurging interest in the art of sewing are the improved products which allow consumers to acheive wearable art quality work at home," said Rogie Sussman Faber, Educational Coordinator for Vogue Fabrics. All over America, consumers are learning how to enjoy the creative excitement of making more interesting garments, quilts and home decorating projects using dazzling new techniques.

The Sulky "Sew Exciting" Seminar, a 2 1/2 hour program subtitled Sulky Shared Home Dec & Quilting Secrets will be presented by Ellen Osten, National Educator for Sulky of America. This Sulky event is scheduled for October 8, 2007 at 718 Main Street, Evanston, Illinois in the classroom of Vogue Fabrics. Osten will also be presenting two more events the following days, titled "Techniques Galor & More" lecture/demonstration featuring a trunk show of samples covering free-motion embroidery, and "WOW!"-Hand's on Texturizing," where participants try their hand at the various techniques discussed. Osten is extremely popular for her fun and friendly approach to the creative process, and she welcomes all skill levels to her classes. More details on all of the classes offered can be found by going to www.MyVogueFabrics.com or by calling 847-864-9600.

Sulky is presenting goodie bags of free merchandise to all those who attend the Sulky "Sew Exciting" Seminar on October 8. Pre-registration is required by calling 847-864-9600 or visitng www.VogueFabricsStore.com and clicking into the Sewing Classes section.
